

Contact: Judy Schmidt, 214-671-9025

It's a turtle takeover at the Trinity River Audubon Center for Texas TurtlePalooza

Dallas, TX- The Trinity River Audubon Center will be showcasing some of nature's cutest creatures Saturday, June 4 from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m. as part of their event, Texas TurtlePalooza.

This free, family-oriented event will offer a host of different ways to experience and learn about turtles, which are some of the oldest creatures on earth.

Meet different turtle species up close. Learn to identify and count Texas turtles through "Texas Turtle Watch", a citizen science program. Enjoy talks from turtle experts. Have fun with turtle-themed crafts and activities. Take a guided hike to watch and enjoy turtles in their natural habitat; we'll explore ponds, prairie, forest and the Trinity River.

Come out of your shell and make your way down to the Trinity River Audubon Center for a free, fun-filled family event!

###

Sustainably built and a LEED-certified gold candidate, the Trinity River Audubon Center is situated on 120 acres of the Great Trinity Forest, the largest urban bottomland hardwood forest in the U.S. TRAC represents a combined $37 million restoration and capital improvement project that was funded and built by the City of Dallas. The Center is a partnership between the City of Dallas and the National Audubon Society. Located just eight minutes from downtown Dallas, TRAC is the flagship for Audubon's science education and conservation initiatives in Texas. The Center is located at 6500 S. Loop 12, Dallas, TX 75217.